FAR WEST'S STRETCH DRIVE

COMES FROM BEHIND WITH HIS USUAL RUSH AND WINS IN THE LAST STRIDE.

Saracinesca Takes a Purse at Last-Fashion Plate Defeats Torbellino in a Grandly Contested Race.

New York, July 24.—The best horses carded for today's racing at Brighton Beach were very well suited by the muddy track conditions and, with one conspicuous exception, in Nealon, they all elected to start, with the result that the snort furnished was up to the best standard of the meeting. There was general disappointment felt over the withdrawal of William Dubois' last year's Suburban victor from the handicap, which, however, became a very open affair in consequence. Far West, Onestion Mark and Tony Bonero monopolized the support. The last-mentioned pair, which were accorded the lion's share, left their backers in the lurch. Both retired in the stretch, leaving Far West, the legitimate winner, to get up and win right at the end of a terrific closing drive from Lally, one of the extreme outsiders in the betting. The race was one of the best contested of the season, with the issue in doubt to the very last stride.

Two odds-on and an even money favorite in Saracinesca, Arasec and Fashion Plate scored right off the reel. After that second choices held sway. The long overdue Musgrave finally put one over and the jockeys and stable boys greeted him in a unique demonstration on his return to the paddock after whning on Saracinesca. Fashion Plate is beginning to be regarded as an iron horse. With a change of riders from H. Smith to J. Lee, the Oneck Stable two-year-old won his race at five and a half furlongs from Torbellino after a remarkable display of grit and stamina. Westmore, the winner of the fourth race, is one of the first of the get of Cameron to score brackets in the east. He was the hot tip of the fifth race.

There will be no changes at Saratoga. The prices of admission will be the same as in the past and the field stand will be open as usual.

It is Cad Doggett's intention to acquire and race a stable of horses of his own and confine his betting operations to them strictly in future.

James Butler, owner of the Empire City track, will sail from Liverpool tomorrow. It is said that he is not yet aware of

w. Coff. owher of the defeated steeplechaser, had instructed his jockey not to use the whip on the horse because of his sulking propensities until at the last obstacle, no matter how far he dropped out of the running. These orders Lynch religiously obeyed.

F. D. Weir has announced that he will not race any of the horses in his charge, including Roseben, at the coming Saratoga meeting.

David Gideon was today served with a subpoena to appear for examination before the Kings county grand jury tomorrow.

Gwyn Tompkins has acquired Kentucky Beau at private sale for steeplechase racing.

Arasee was the victim of a big run-up in the second race, Cad Doggett bidding Andy Blakeley's charge up from $1,000 to $2,700 before he stopped. The stable bought in the much-improved Blues gelding for an additional raise of $5. Doggett had previously bid up Star Thistle in the last race the night before from $600 to $1,500 and got him. Star Thistle was turned over to Frank Taylor to train.

The Crest Handicap next Wednesday, the closing day's chief feature, has been reduced in distance from one mile and a quarter to one mile.

It is reported that Brancas came out of his race on Thursday in such bad condition as to be virtually broken down.

The apprentice boy, Leach has been suspended for the remainder of the meeting.

RAIN AFFECTS WINDSOR ATTENDANCE.

Good Racing and Close Finishes Mark the Day-

Detroit, Mich.. July 24.—Threatening weather, culminating in intermittent showers during the aftermoon, held down the attendance considerably and dampened enthusiasm at Windsor today. Upsets were frequent and in several instances form reversals were frequent and in several instances form reversals were apparent. The most noticeable was that of Patriot, which defeated Chipmunk after a long stretch drive. J. W. May, owner of Patriot, also sent Marbles to the nost and she won, too. Marbles was an overwhelming choice, showed great speed in sprinting into a lead of almost ten lengths in the first quarter, then gradually tired and gave her supporters cause for alarm by fajtering badly near the end. almost allowing Grande Dame to get to her.

The closest finish came with the running of the fourth race, when Quagga's showing today was in out the issue and landed noses apart, the latter getting the purse. Quagga's showing today was in striking contrast to his previous effort when favorite and ridden by Powers. Minder today took the Arthur horse into a good lead at the outset and raced his early opposition into subjection, but the excessive early use he was put to caused him to the slightly with the result that Arrow Swift nailed him. The first running of the meting came after the fifth race when Sam Louis boosted Alencon, the winner, $200 over his entered price of $400, at which liqure he got him. The largest field of the afternoon started in this race, Alencon being a slight choice over Euripides. This pair had it between them all inhe way.

J. C. Perriss, Jr.'s Spunky was another that showed runprising improvement incidentally furnishing the started in this race, Alencon being a single cooler over Euripides. This pair had it between them all the way.

J. C. Ferriss, Jr.'s Spunky was another that showed arreprising improvement, incidentally furnishing the hief upset by winning in a common canter in the closing race at a mile and a quarter. The bad start that Banrida, the favorite, received, eliminated her and she was a trailing last throughout.

Petuliant, which started in the fourth race, was jumped on and badly cut on his hind leg. This accounted for his sudden stop, It will be necessary to throw the colt out of training.

Nugent Bros. added to their purchases by the acquisition of the two-year-old filly, Maycella, after she was beaten in the second race.

Miss Imogene has been transferred back to Mode Nicoll. R. B. Stelle purchased the filly of Nicoll a few weeks ago, but failed to win with her. Five cars of horses, the property of various owners, were shipped to Buffalo this morning. In one was the stable of Amos Turney. P. Kernell has decided to rest up his horses until the opening of the Lexington meeting and they will be shipped south after the close of racing here.

J. W. May and J. S. Ward will send their horses to Saratoga Sunday next.

DISCOURAGED BREEDER SELLS HIS HORSES.

Lexington. Ky., July 24.—John H. Morris today soid fifty thoroughbred mares and yearlings from Woodburn Farm to John B. Stewart for low prices. They will be shipped west and sold to farmers.

District Attorney Elder's Detectives Have a Lively Time in Securing a Grand Jury Witness.

New York, July 24.—The Adams police court, Brooklyn, was the storm center this morning in the race track war. The trouble all grew out of an effort that acting District Attorney Elder made to compel the attendance of one Martin Browle, a bookmaker, before the grand jury to testify as to alleged statements that he was reported as having made, charging that the police were extorting money from the bookmakers at the track for the privilege of making bets and carrying on their business. Elder sent two of his detectives to serve a subpoena on Browle requiring him to appear before the grand jury at once.

Browle had been arrested yesterday at the Brighton Beach track charged with violating the betting law and was released on ball with the understanding that he was to appear in court this morning in answer to the charge. They found Browle awaiting arraignment. The court was not in session, Magistrate Tighe not having arrived, and the detectives made known their mission to Browle at once. Browle informed the detectives that, acting on the advice of counsel, he would have to decline to go with them. Thereupon they started to grab Browle, whereupon his attorney. Eliperin, quickly jumped in between, shouting: "You have no right to take this man. Where is your subnoena? Show your authority."

The detectives withdrew from the room and telephoned to the district attorney for assistance and three more men were sent around to the court. The five men then moved on Browle and again theres to be the subnown the string and acceptant what was best to do.

Elder quickly arrived in person and directed the magistrate explained to Browle that he was at liberty to go before the grand jury and the whole party left, quietly for the court house, Browle was ushered at once before the grand jury and the whole party left quietly for the court house, Browle was ushered at once before the grand jury and the whole party left quietly for the court house, Br

THIS IS DERBY DAY AT SEATTLE.

Seattle. Wash., July 24.—Today's racing at The Meadows was in keeping with the card—commonplace. Ida May and Novgorod represented the extent of public success in picking winners. Both of these horses were heavily backed. Ouardi, another favorite, was extensively plunged on, but was not quite equal to the task of beating Harry Scott and Arcourt, which made an exciting nose finish of the mile and a quarter race. Vivant and Sahara, two choices that finished out of the money, were both victims of crowding and Jamming on turns that destroyed their chances. Jockey Harris, William Walker's apprentice, distinguished himself by piloring three winners.

Barney Oldheid's showing in the race won by Harry Scott will be the subject of a judicial investigation tomorrow. This horse, with jockey Gaugel up, falled to show even a flash of the good form that had earned him a strong local following.

Interest in the outcome of tomorrow's Derby is exceedingly keen today and if the day is propitious a record-breaking attendance is anticipated. Conditions tonight are threatening and the racing tomorrow may be over a wet track. There is general satisfaction because the owners of candidates with seemingly scant chances have left the contest to the quartette all along regarded as the only contenders worthy of consideration. Dareington is the principal possibility in the added starter line. The starters named overnight, with their weights, jockeys and probable odds, are:

Jockey Buxton will recuperate during the ensuing week in hope that a rest will restore his saddle form.

DEAN SWIFT'S LIVERPOOL SUMMER CUP.

London, July 24.—At the Liverpool July meeting today eleven horses started in the Liverpool Summer Cup., at a mile and three furlongs. The race was won by J. B. Joel's seven-year-old chestnut horse, Dean Swift, by Childwick-Pasquil, with Sol Joel's five-year-old chestnut horse, Procope, by St. Bris—Princess Bee, second, and A. Bendon's five-year-old bay horse, Wuffy, by Martagon—Glass, third. Wuffy was the favorite, at 5 to 2, while 4 to 1 was laid against Dean Swift and 25 to 1 against Procope.

NEW CANADIAN CLUB ORGANIZED.

Ottawa, Que., July 24.—The projected new racing organization has taken form under the name of the Ottawa Turf and Racing Association and has been granted a charter. Quite a number of the members of parliament show a lively interest in the enterprise and have become stockholders. The capital stock is $150,000 in $100 shares and an option is held on a tract of land suitable for a mile track and appropriate buildings.

SEYMOUR BEUTLER READY TO RACE.

Jack Atkin and Seymour Beutler are in lusty health at Saratoga and working well for trainer Brandt, who bought the last-named colt from Barney Schreiber last fall. Brandt always entertained a high opinion of Seymour Beutler, but for some regson has not been able to start him in a race so far this year. He is expected to do well in overnight races at the coming Saratoga meeting.

WHAT THE FITZGERALD INDICTMENT SAYS.

As a sample of ingenious and complex word-weaving, the indictment against the Brighton Beach officials is a wonder. It reads as follows:

"That William J. Engeman, Christopher J. Fitzgerald and John G. Cavamagh, owners, agents and superintendents of a certain device and apparatus for gambling—that is to say, a certain device and apparatus commonly called advance information—and the said device and apparatus being a piece of would

RECORDS OF THE JAMAICA TRACK.

Owing to its width and shape, races over the Ja-maica track are not run at many different distances, the fact that it has no record at a mile being a peculiarity that is striking. Since the opening of the track only eleven different distances have been raced over. In the way of new records two have been made this year, by High Private at four and a half furlongs and by Fitz Herbert at five-eighths of a mile. King Cobalt tied the record previously held by Gold Rose at three-quarters of a mile and the track records now are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

George C. Bennett, having abandoned the turf, is branching out in a new line of trouble and has lately become the leading stockholder of the Memphis baseball club.

William Holmes, the ex-jockey who committed sui-cide at Seattle last Sunday, rode with considerable success at Oakland in 1897 and 1898, winning some excellent races with the good horse Senator Bland.

Charles Edward stands sixteen hands two inches is his plates and weighs close to 1,100 pounds. His paratoga engagements are in the Saratoga Handicap atskill Handicap and Merchants' and Citizens' Han-lean.

It is said that the Brighton Beach management has broken about even financially on the meeting at the Beach. In spite of the troubles of the alleged bookmakers, the attendance has been excellent. If the patronage improves from now until next Wednesday the track will actually make a little money—New York Sun.

An observant eastern exchange says: "Tony Bonero is a most whimsical horse. The Sain horse has a cheerful little way of finishing in the ruck one day and winning the next. It generally happens that the races he loses are ones in which he is badly placed and cannot win. But no matter how a horse may be people will talk."

value for one thing, making it a $20,000 stake. A few events of such value could not fail to attract more high-class horses than have ever been brought together in California. Mr. Williams will come east about September 1, and will then be ready to announce the full stake program for next winter.

Kirschbaum, Shriner and Singleton are leading the riders at Butte. The first-maned has scored the most winning mounts, but Singleton's percentage is 26 and Shriner's .24, while Kirschbaum's is but .20. Up to last Monday the Pasadena Stable was far in the lead of winning owners with $6,000 to its credit. Nearest were E. J. Ramsey, $2,645; Kenilworth Stock Farm, $2,440 and J. P. Dunn, $1,630. Seven more owners had won over $1,000.

It is altogether unlikely that President Williams has fully decided all the details of next winter's racing at Oakland and Tanforan, but that a considerable advance in the number and values of stakes to be offered is to be a feature of the program, is taken as already having been determined. It is said that the Burns Handicap is to be doubled in
